

Rolando Claire-Del Granado

Short Bio/CV

Head Division of Nephrology
Hospital Obrero No 2 - CNS
Cochabamba, Bolivia

Rolando Claire-Del Granado received his medical degree from Universidad del Valle School of Medicine (Cochabamba, Bolivia) in 1999. His postgraduate training included a residency in Internal Medicine and a Fellowship in Nephrology at Instituto Nacional de Ciencias Médicas y Nutrición “Salvador Zubirán” (U.N.A.M) in Mexico City, Mexico. He was a Research Fellow at the Division of Nephrology - Hypertension of the University of California San Diego, from 2009 to 2011. Following his fellowship he joined the faculty of Universidad Mayor de San Simon School of Medicine (Cochabamba, Bolivia); as a Professor of Medicine. He is a Clinical Research Investigator at the Biomedical Research Institute (IIBISMED). He is the Head of the Division of Nephrology at Hospital Obrero No 2 – Caja Nacional de Salud (Cochabamba, Bolivia) where he has an ISN Sister Renal Center program. He has actively been involved in several activities, programs and initiatives inside ISN like the Oby25 and Kidney Care Network initiatives, the development of ISN COVID-19 resources site, the development of the ISN-ACT Clinical Trials Toolkit, etc. He is the past Chair of the ISN Young Nephrologists Committee and current member of it; he is also a member of the ISN Fellowship committee, an active member of the @ISNeducation Social Media team, and a member of the ISN Latin American Regional Board. He is also a member of the Acute Kidney Injury Committee of the Latin-American Society of Nephrology and Hypertension and past President of the Bolivian Society of Nephrology and Hypertension. Dr. Claire-Del Granado’s research interests include the epidemiology of AKI, extracorporeal therapies for AKI, study of biomarkers in AKI, mobile health, and the use of social media in education.

Dr. Claire-Del Granado has more than 70 publications between original articles, reviews, abstracts and book chapters. He has received several grants, awards and recognitions throughout his career like.

Candidate’s Statement

Statement as candidate for Deputy Chair LARB

My name is Rolando Claire-Del Granado and I’m an adult nephrologist from Cochabamba, Bolivia. My journey and work with the ISN began when I became a member as a nephrology fellow back on 2007, it continued with my ISN Fellowship, and later on through my incorporation and participation in several ISN committees, programs, initiatives, and leadership roles. This fantastic journey has allowed me to know ISN better and to work in close relationship with nephrologists around the world. As a Deputy Chair of LARB, I would like to improve the communications between ISN and members in my region, especially to work more closely with young nephrologists. Would like to evaluate and understand the needs of our members in order to develop education, research, and professional development in the region. I will keep direct contact with every single society in the region for a more targeted response. Thank you!